

DR SHELLEY MOORE

Victoria Park, Brisbane
21st May 2025

ONE DAY
TWO WORKSHOPS
COUNTLESS INSPIRATION

Illume Learning is thrilled to welcome Dr Shelley Moore back to Australia for this exclusive workshop tour.

Based in British Columbia, Canada, Dr. Shelley Moore is a highly sought-after inclusive education researcher, teacher, consultant and storyteller. She has worked with school districts and community organisations around the world. Her research explores how to support teachers to design for all learners in grade level academic classrooms that include students with intellectual disabilities using strength based and responsive approaches. Shelley completed her undergraduate degree in Special Education at the University of Alberta, her Masters at Simon Fraser University, and her Ph.D. at the University of British Columbia.

Curricular Design Frameworks That Support Inclusive Planning for All Students

Full Day
Workshop
9:00am - 3:30pm

In this full day workshop, we will look at some inclusive curricular planning frameworks that allow us to design for a range of diversity using grade level curriculum. We will see examples of how we can use the Australian Curriculum in flexible ways to support success and growth for all students, while targeting self-determination and agency. We will also look at how IEPs connect to the curricular design process and discuss how to make grade level curriculum accessible for learners of any ability.
